Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Bridge Credit Union, INC.

What we do

How does Bridge Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Access to your personal information is restricted to those employees who have a specific business purpose for using it.

How does Bridge Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or use your credit or debit card
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account

Why can't I limit sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

When you limit sharing, this applies only to your non-public personal information. Any joint owners must notify us separately to limit sharing.
